

What is this Program?

This Program is an invitation to learn how to promote peace, balance, and harmony in your life.

Teachings in Chinese Shamanic Qigong and Taiji will be given in the traditional style, and classes will be offered over the long term. Yearly meetings will provide a forum to discuss what we have each learned in our daily practice and to further our instruction from Master Zhongxian Wu.

Traditional style teaching in China encompasses two key components. First, a student commits to learn from a master for his/her whole life. Second, the master commits to transmit knowledge from the lineage directly to the student. The training is deeply grounded because the knowledge received grows as it is cultivated through daily practice.

Lineage transmission is the traditional manner a Master uses to pass knowledge on to lineage students. The feeling is similar to that of a nourishing family; the students and the Master become a Qigong or Taiji family and students build friendships like brothers and sisters. In internal cultivation, it is important to have support as well as to follow the right way. Being in good company can shorten the journey to Enlightenment. Meetings will be like family reunions for students to share experiences and to further our practice together.

What is the Cost?

The program cost for each session is $1,200. Instruction, lodging, and catered meals are included. A $500 deposit is required to reserve space in this unique training program. Deposits will be applied to the first session fee.

What is the Purpose?

What is the Course of Study?

The Chinese Shamanic Qigong and Taiji Training Program is a life-long program with annual opportunities to meet with this growing Taiji and Qigong family.

Studying Classical Chinese Wisdom Traditions promotes the development of knowledge through experience. To deepen our study of Taiji and Qigong, we will learn from classical texts such as The Book of Changes (Yijing), The Classic of the Whole and its Parts (Daodejing), and Yellow Emperor's Classic of Medicine (Huangdi Neijing). The arts of calligraphy, music, Fengshui and Chinese astrology will also be included. We will explore how to apply this learning to our daily practice and develop an understanding of the relationships found in the classics, self-cultivation practices, the way we live our daily lives, and the creation of harmonious communities.

The initial meeting and annual reunions will be held in natural locations that represent a variety of climates and environments, reflecting the richness and growth experienced through the training.
